
Section 20. Agricultural Commission

May 7, 2005

Section 20 Agricultural Commission

The Town voted to establish a Town Agricultural Commission in accordance with guidelines set forth by the Massachusetts Department of Agricultural Resources, to allow anyone to start or continue agricultural operations even if there are odors or more flies from livestock. It would cover forestry, horticulture, and the like. Signs would be available to identify such projects as clean farms.